Nearly Ready for Gala First Night

In a pandemonium of sound and a confusion of form and color beyond description day and night crews are hurrying the Theatre of the Golden Bough to completion. Order is finally evolving from apparent chaos, and with the word that the bank of dimensions was shipped from Milwaukee on the 17th the last item of uncertainty with reference to the entire compilation before next Friday's opening is removed.

"The Mother of Gregory," written by Maurice Browne for his distinguished wife, Ellen van Volkenberg, has been held over for its premiere for

Lots of Action in This Week-End Show

Herbert Haron's production last night at Arts and Crafts Theatre, to be repeated tonight, was well-balanced comedy and tragedy. Yet not conventional comedy any more than it was conventional tragedy.

The Goal Gate, which has the stark and simple sorrow of Bismuth in the Old Testament, or Antigone in Greek tragedy, turns into a paean of pride and praise, a "glorying" of the man who did not know his comrades. And, incidentally, if one could completely understand the psychology of the old mother who goes off so proudly to "tell it through Galway," one might understand the Irish nation. Which would be a great relief.

And, conversely, The Man Who

of the spirit which has actuated the building of the Golden Bough. Being a first production, it would be inappropriate to present now a synopsis of the play, but those familiar with that most poignant of ancient Scotch ballads, "Annie of Lochroyan," upon which the play is based, will realize at once the tremendous dramatic possibilities of the tale. Ludwig Lewisohn, the noted critic, has said in The Nation:

"The Maurice Browns were among the first Americans to conceive the theatre as an art. Struggling often against very real difficulties, they have never dreamed of following the theatre as a trade. The long list of their productions shows not one play that does not clearly rise to the dignity of dramatic literature; it shows a series of masterpieces from Euripides to Shaw that, but for their energy and devotion, would never have been seen by this generation of Americans. The Browns vindicate and sustain the theatre as they have always done. Their work is of steady and varied excellence."

The after-piece, "Renaissance," by the eminent American poet, Edna St. Vincent Millay, will be demonstration of the work of Hedwiga Reicher in bringing to the stage what may well be termed a new art-form—the staging of poetry. The poem, one of the finest examples of contemporary American poetry, will be interpreted by Dorothy Crawford, one of Miss Reicher's pupils and disciples.

Many theatre parties from various portions of California will attend the opening of the new theatre, and Carmel will once more demonstrate her right to claim a position of pre-eminence for creative artistry of the highest order.

Following the play John B. Jordan has tendered the use of Pine Inn for a dance, and during the dance light refreshments will be served in the Blue Bird tearoom.

"Carry On" is Slogan of Jack Beaumont

Probably with the defection of Pacific Grove in mind, Jack Beaumont of that city, a hard worker in Monterey Peninsula Communities, Inc., made an interesting talk at a meeting of that organization a few days ago. He said:

"I see no reason why our organization should not continue to carry on just as it has carried on throughout its first year. It is my conviction that Monterey Peninsula Communities Incorporated has been functioning on broad lines and, on the principle that what is good for one section of the Peninsula is beneficial to every part of it, I feel that every dollar that has been spent has been spent with a determination to make it work just as much for one community as for another."

Youths of Carmel Have Athletic Club

The Carmel Athletic Club was organized on Friday evening of last week. Officers were elected as follows: Teady Nichols, president; Wesley Dickenson, secretary; Waldo Hicks, treasurer; Sherman Snow and Manning Tarr, executive committee.

The youths who form the membership not only have an organization, but a clubhouse as well. The chapel on Seventh avenue near Dolores street has been secured.

By the payment of dues, the giving of plays, entertainments, indoor and outdoor athletic events, sufficient funds will be secured to conduct the club, including a summer camp.

Keep 'Em Warm

The Near East has sent out a call for clothing to meet next winter's needs. In other parts of the country May 15 was celebrated as Bundle Day. Next week Carmel Chapter of the Red Cross, with the co-operation of the Boy and Girl Scouts, will pack clothing for the Near East. P. J. Denny has kindly put at their disposal his Chevrolet salesroom, near the postoffice. Any bundles may be left there during the week. The Boy and Girl Scouts will endeavor to call at each house in town on Wednesday afternoon, after school hours, to collect bundles which cannot otherwise be delivered.

Coats, sweaters, blankets, wool shirts, heavy hose, wool gloves, boots and shoes (tied in pairs), sheets for bandages, new cloth and heavy clothing in which there is still some wear.

Please bring things in early in the week or have them ready when the boys or girls call Wednesday afternoon.

Homes Completed and Under Way

Contractor Percy Parkes reports the following work under way: Five-room house for Miss Florence O'Neill on Carmelo avenue is rapidly nearing completion; among other built-in features is a full-length mirror door. The Marshall De Mott house on Scenic Drive has been turned over to the owner; the very compact design allows the scenic possibilities of the site to be fully realized. The Short house on Mountain View avenue is about to be occupied by the owners; its design is novel and picturesque. The charming English-style Bostick house on Torree street is rapidly assuming its shape and lines.

New Realty Firm

A new real estate business has just been opened up under the name of "Carmel House and Lot Company," with offices in the Parkes building on Dolores street.

The company is under the office management of Miss Beatrice Clark, and will handle rentals and loans, as well as the sale of houses and lots.

There's a Local Market-and-Kearny

The latest addition to the group of shops maintained in the Court of the Golden Bough is Mrs. Helen Wilson's flower shop. The shop is located on the ground floor of one of the Kuster buildings, and this location and the nature of the business suggested the facetious title which has been adopted—The Bloomin' Basement.

The flower shop is a development of Mrs. Wilson's heretofore established garden design, plant growing and floral decoration enterprises, in which she has been very successful.

Getting Ready for Mr. Bunt in July

Preparatory to active rehearsals of the Forest Theatre offering, "Mr. Bunt," to be given early in July, a number of those interested gathered at the Burton home on Thursday evening to hear a reading of the play by Ira M. Remsen, author and producer.

"Mr. Bunt" is that most alluring and elusive thing—a love of the borderland between two worlds, realityphantasy; the human; the fairy; the philosophic man; the wild-eyed child; the laugh; the tear. Where shall we place it? It leaps lightly between all these opposites, and lays a hand on each. In short, it is a betwixt-and-between," as Solomon Caw said of

We think naturally of Barrie in talking of Rem's place, for there are several trails up that mountain where Barrie sits enthroned, and we are inclined to believe that Rem has found one of them.

Forest Theatre Plans Well Under Way

The first meeting of the Ira Remsen executive committee having to do with the July production of "Mr. Bunt" in the Forest Theatre met last Sunday. Ten committees to have charge of various aspects of the production were appointed. Plans for extensive publicity were outlined, and the cast for the play was almost completed.

There will be three night presentations of the play, July 3, 4 and 5, and possibly a matinee.

The committees and chairmen are as follows:

Publicity—Susan Porter.

Casting—Marian Daniels.

Music—Isabel Logie.

Many Enroll for Psychology Course

Among the variety of subjects which contributed to the wide appeal of the classes of the University Extension courses to be conducted in the Theatre of the Golden Bough is that of Dr. Beulah M. Morrison in General Intelligence Tests and Psychology in Teaching. In the latter course the concepts and laws of general psychology will be reviewed and the topics, perception, attention, memory, association, learning and habit, imagery and emotion will be covered.

In the first course, there will be a brief history of the testing movements, the principles underlying general intelligence tests and their use in clinics and schools.

Big Demand for

The story of what improved highways mean to the rural community as told in the motion picture, "The Road to Happiness," is giving a new impetus to good roads sentiment everywhere through the country.

This is shown in reports being received daily by government officials who co-operated in the making of the picture and by the Ford Motion Picture Laboratory which produced it.

"The Road to Happiness" films are distributed free from all Ford branches in the United States, and since the first of them went out a few weeks ago the demand for their showing has been so great that it has been necessary to supply every branch with extra copies.

The picture tells of the influence of improved highways upon the social, educational, religious and economic phases of life in rural communities the moral of all of which is that "we pay for improved roads whether we have them or not, and we pay less if we have them than if we have not."

The film was produced jointly by the National Automobile merce, representing the motor car industry and the Highway Education Board, and was made by the Ford Motion Picture Laboratory, under the guidance of the Bureau of Public Roads, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Because of the success of the picture in this country, the titles are being translated into foreign languages and Mexico, South America and Europe.

Roberts Commended For Road Improvement

Editor Pine Cone:

All automobile owners are due to give thanks to Supervisor J. L. D. Roberts and his efficient head man, Serrano, for their efficient work in eliminating the "sand trap" near the junction of Santa Lucia avenue and Scenic Drive on the Carmel waterfront. Several feet of sand were scraped away, down to hard ground for some eighty yards, and some forty loads of gravel distributed in various chuck holes in the drive on around the point. There is now a first class road from the city limits around the point. Almost every automobilist coming to the peninsula takes this drive and appreciates this work as adding to their comfort.

Dr. Roberts has gained friends by his quick response to the casual report made of this poor road condition.

At present Thirteenth ave. is the only street, except Ocean avenue, in which any vehicle can drive to the waterfront, and at the foot of Thirteenth avenue, where it joins Scenic Drive, washouts and ditches make a very bad road condition. A few loads of gravel and on into Scenic Drive for half a block will make a continuance of a good waterfront drive. Will the city trustees do their part in making this approach to the waterfront a good road?

Del Monte Properties Company Refuses to Function With New Grove Booster Organization

Announcement in the Review to the effect that Jack Beaumont, secretary of the company, would probably be their director in the new organization, evoked a strong protest from the company, signed by Beaumont.

May 26, 1924.

Mr. H. L. Boyd, Secy.,
Boosters' Club,
Pacific Grove, Calif.

Dear Sir:

On Tuesday evening, May 29th, Pacific Grove Boosters' Club was organized and my name was set forth as one of the directors. I was not present at the meeting or would have expressed myself at that time. After careful consideration I am desirous of expressing myself in connection with this matter and am sending a copy of this letter to the local newspaper.

In the first place, allow me to state that the Del Monte Properties Company is perhaps more particularly interested in the development of Pacific Grove than any other area on the Peninsula. It contemplates at the present time more investment and greater development in that vicinity than at any other point. For these reasons and because I am a citizen of Pacific Grove I would like to be actively interested with any association that would advance the interests of the city. I can further say in behalf of the Del Monte Properties Company that that company is willing at all times to invest money in any sound and logical enterprise to assist Pacific Grove. The Boosters' Club, however, has suggested certain laws in its preamble that makes it impossible or logical for either myself personally or for any member of the Del Monte Properties Company to consistently take part.

Non-Political

First and foremost, the Del Monte Properties Company does not wish to take part in any political organization. In other words, we do not as a company desire to engage in local politics. I might say personally and in behalf of the Del Monte Properties Company that I have a very high regard for Mr. Gould and for Dr. Roberts. Familiarity with the work that Dr. Roberts has done has lead me to the belief that he is a highly efficient public servant. I believe that he has been unbiased in the management of the affairs of this district, but irrespective of this fact I could not join an organization that has for one of its purposes a local political fight.

Secondly, the statement as set forth in the Review would indicate that Pacific Grove is to make an attempt to further its own ends independently of the rest of the Peninsula. As a member of the Monterey Peninsula Communities, Inc., I have pledged myself to a closer co-operation of the Peninsula communities and affairs and to the advancement of the Peninsula matters without prejudice to local communities on the Peninsula. We that the best good to Pacific Grove will result through those co-operation with the other communities on the Monterey Peninsula.

Present Methods Unbiased

I believe that the Monterey Peninsula Communities, Inc. has administered its affairs in a manner unbiased in such a way as to advance Peninsula affairs without prejudice to any community and that all communities, including Pacific Grove, will share equally in the benefits to be derived therefrom.

Thirdly, part of the plan suggested by the Boosters' Club was to expend a material sum of money in road signs. Both myself and the company which I represent feel that road signs do much to destroy the beauty of our local scenery. We have pledged ourselves to do everything possible to remove road signs of all kinds on the highways and city streets. This action is being adopted by many of the large companies and important individuals throughout the state. The action, therefore, of the Boosters' Club is in direct opposition to our point of view on this particular matter.

In closing let me say that I have spoken frankly but with good feeling. I am just as desirous of advancing the interests of Pacific Grove as anyone connected with the Boosters' organization but I am convinced that the best results can be obtained through the medium of co-operation. It is perhaps fitting to repeat the oft quoted statement "United We Stand, Divided We Fall." Why not investigate thoroughly and make known to the citizens of Pacific Grove exactly how the money of the Monterey Peninsula Communities, Inc. has been expended. I believe that much of the dissatisfaction in Pacific Grove comes about through lack of real information.

Very sincerely yours,
(Signed)

J. BEAUMONT,

Secretary.

Mrs. Bernice O. Warren and her son Tommy have returned from a visit with relatives in Berkeley.

William Sheppard is the Pacific Grove high school pupil to be awarded a scholarship in the Theatre of the Golden Bough summer school.

The William A. Powell residence, being erected by Contractor L. E. Gottfredson in north Carmel will be completed in a few days. Irving Stringham is the architect.

In memory of a faithful dog companion, "Sonny," the San Francisco Humane Society has given the estate of Ella Reid Harrison, who was for many years an active member of the society.

Is Carmel growing? We'll say it is. In support of this assertion we have to report that during the past week a hundred new flock houses were built by the local post office.

The regular monthly meeting of the city trustees takes place next Tuesday night. In addition to routine matters, new library affairs, building ordinances and special police for the Forest theatre will be before the board.

Contractor M. J. Murphy recently completed the Mary J. Baker residence at Ocean avenue and Carmelo street. In the construction care was taken not to cut off the view of Point Lobos and Carmel bay enjoyed by residences east of it.

Property-owners are urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Resolution of Intention as to sewer construction passed at the last meeting of the board of trustees. The resolution is printed in this issue.

Miss Adaline Gray of Palo Alto is visiting her sister, Miss Eunice T. Gray.

Colonel Clair Foster and wife have returned to their home in Alberni, Canada.

The Emma B. Keplers' residence south of the city boundary line, has been purchased by Mrs. Allen Emory.

"The Other House," the latest Hooper acquisition, will be the home of Mrs. Curtis O'Sullivan during June and July.

Mrs. George Marwedel and two small daughters who have been sojourning in the mountains during the past month have returned to their home in Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Watson from Bakersfield are the guests of the E. K. Bloods. The Watsons are so pleased with Carmel that they are planning to make their home here.

The Percy Gray paintings now on exhibition in the Bohemian Club in San Francisco are attracting a great deal of attention and favorable comment. Last Sunday's Examiner had a feature article by Robert H. Wilson, illustrated by one of Gray's pictures showing cypress trees with Carmel coast in the background. Gray resides in and has his studio in the famous Sherman Rose house.
